

| Date  | Time                      | Track                                                         | Presentation Title                                                                                  | Speaker                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5-Nov | 07:30-08:30AM | Stigma SurroundingOpioid Use Disorder                     | Keynote Presentation: The Opioid Crisis:Made in America...Fade in America                       | Professor Bertha Madras (the Honorable)McLean Hospital and Harvard Medical School                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 5-Nov | 09:00-10:00AM | Health SystemDelivery of Opioid UseDisorder Treatment | Panel Presentation: The NIH HEALInitiative: A Bold Interagency Response tothe Opioid Crisis | Rebecca G. Baker, PhDDirector, NIH HEAL Initiative, Office of the Director, NationalInstitutes of HealthLinda L. Porter, PhDDirector, Office of Pain Policy, National Institute of NeurologicalDisorders and StrokeJack B. Stein, PhDDirector, Office of Science Policy and Communications; Chief ofStaff, National Institute on Drug Abuse |
| 5-Nov | 12:00-12:45AM | Medications for opioiduse disorder                        | Buprenorphine Induction Strategies                                                                  | Jennifer Ball, PharmD, BCACP, BCGPAssociate Professor, Pharmacy Practice, South Dakota StateUniversity                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 5-Nov | 12:00-12:45AM | Stigma surroundingopioid use disorder                     | MAT's Not For Me: Addressing StigmaToward MAT within the Recovery Community                     | Glenn E. Sterner III, PhDAssistant Professor of Criminal Justice, Criminal Justice ResearchCenter, The Pennsylvania State University                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 5-Nov | 12:00-12:45AM | Stigma SurroundingOpioid Use Disorder                     | Out of the Lab and into the Streets: TheOpioid Crisis from a Police Perspective                 | Sergeant Joseph DeLucaLincoln (NH) Police Department                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 5-Nov | 12:00-12:45AM | Stigma SurroundingOpioid Use Disorder                     | Stigma and Substance Use: Evidence andMyths                                                     | Thomas S. Franko, PharmD, BCACPAssociate Professor Pharmacy Practice, Wilkes University                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

|       |                           |                                                               |                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5-Nov | 12:00-12:45AM | Health system deliveryof opioid use disordertreatment | The importance of educating patients andtheir physicians on opioid use: lessonslearned from medical cases | Alan H.B. Wu, PhD, DABACCChief of Clinical Chemistry and Toxicology Medical Director,Pharmacogenomics Laboratory San Francisco General HospitalProfessor of Laboratory Medicine, USF |
|-------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|